It is not permissible for any non-rights holder to post, place, broadcast, or make available in any other way, audio or video event content that exceeds three (3) minutes in length. Events are defined as varsity contests, press conferences and any other group media availability. Archiving may not begin until the conclusion of the entire event. It is not permissible to reuse or post any video produced and/or owned by the University of Miami athletics department without the consent of the university.

QUESTIONS?

Please contact Megan Barnes via email at meganbarnes@miami.edu or by phone at 305-284-6797 (office) or 630-651-8801 (cell) with any questions about the University of Miami women's basketball team.

Watsco Center

The Watsco Center is a 200,000 square foot, 7,972-seat arena that is home to the University of Miami men's and women's basketball teams. It was called the BankUnited Center from 2005-16 and the UM Convocation Center from 2003-05.

Watsco, Inc., based in Miami, is traded on the NYSE and is the largest distributor of air conditioning, heating and refrigeration products, with annual sales approaching $5 billion, 6,000 employees and over 600 locations throughout North America. Watsco has provided funding to the University since the 1990s through its 'Watsco Kids' program, providing children in the community free access to performance arts, sports and other events at the University.

The Canes opened the arena Jan. 4, 2003, with an overtime win over North Carolina. Since then, Miami has won the ACC regular-season championship in the building and hosted NCAA women's basketball tournament games.

Since its opening, the arena has hosted a number of memorable events and sold-out shows, including Coldplay, DaBaby, Drake, The Fray, Green Day, Kodak Black, John Mayer and Lil Baby. It has also served as the setting for televised events and award shows such as the 2004 Presidential Debates, All Elite Wrestling, Billboard's Latin Music Awards, Premio Lo Nuestro, Premios Juventud, The X Factor and Unplugged featuring Ricky Martin and Thalia.

The venue has welcomed world-renowned figures and politicians, including His Holiness the Dalai Lama, former United States Presidents Bill Clinton and Barack Obama, former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, former Vice President Joe Biden and late Senator John McCain.

Fieldhouse

The 29,000-square foot on-campus practice facility that is conveniently located adjacent to the Watsco Center opened in March of 2009. The facility houses a pair of full-sized basketball courts with 14 baskets, as well as a multi-purpose room to host a variety of events. Miami basketball players have access to the secure facility 24 hours per day, allowing the Hurricanes court time at any time all year.

The Hurricanes use the facility for both conditioning and practice sessions, as well as for individual workouts and pick-up games. The Fieldhouse was also honored for its sustainability components, earning the LEED Gold designation, established by the U.S. Green Building Council & verified by the Green Building Certification Institute.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
UNIVERSIDAD NACIONAL
AUTÓNOMA DE MÉXICO, 1979

Dr. Julio Frenk, a noted leader in global public health and a renowned scholar and academic, was named the sixth president of the University of Miami in April 2015. He assumed his leadership post on August 16, 2015.

Prior to joining the University of Miami, Dr. Frenk was Dean of the Faculty at the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health since January 2009. While at Harvard, he was also the T & G Angelopoulos Professor of Public Health and International Development, a joint appointment with the Harvard Kennedy School of Government.

Dr. Frenk served as the Minister of Health of Mexico from 2000 to 2006. He pursued an ambitious agenda to reform the nation's health system and introduced a program of comprehensive universal health insurance, known as Seguro Popular, which expanded access to health care for tens of millions of uninsured Mexicans.

Dr. Frenk was the founding director-general of the National Institute of Public Health in Mexico, one of the leading institutions of health education and research in the developing world. In 1998 Dr. Frenk joined the World Health Organization (WHO) as executive director in charge of Evidence and Information for Policy, WHO's first-ever unit explicitly charged with developing a scientific foundation for health policy to achieve better outcomes.

He also served as a senior fellow in the global health program of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and as president of the Carso Health Institute in Mexico City. He is the founding chair of the board of the Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation at the University of Washington. He also co-chaired the Commission on the Education of Health Professionals for the 21st Century, which published its influential report in the leading journal The Lancet in 2010, triggering a large number of follow-up initiatives throughout the world.

Dr. Frenk holds a medical degree from the National Autonomous University of Mexico, as well as a master of public health and a joint doctorate in Medical Care Organization and in Sociology from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. He has been awarded honorary doctorates from several institutions of higher learning. In September of 2008, Dr. Frenk received the Clinton Global Citizen Award for changing "the way practitioners and policy makers across the world think about health."

He is a member of the U.S. Institute of Medicine, American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and National Academy of Medicine of Mexico.

In addition to his scholarly works, which include more than 140 articles in academic journals, as well as many books and book chapters, he has written two best-selling novels for youngsters explaining the functions of the human body.

DR. MARVIN DAWKINS

FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE
EDWARD WATERS COLLEGE, 1970

Dr. Marvin Dawkins, a distinguished professor in the Department of Sociology at the University of Miami, is in his fifth year as the Faculty Athletics Representative. He was named to the post in April 2012, replacing Clyde McCoy after his 17 years of service in that role.

In his FAR post, Dawkins is responsible for ensuring the academic integrity of students participating in University athletic programs and helping to oversee institutional control of the Department of Athletics. The Faculty Athletics Representative serves as a liaison between the University and the athletic department. This individual is the University's voting delegate to the ACC and represents UM with the NCAA and ACC.

Dawkins received his doctorate from Florida State and completed his postdoctoral research fellowships at Howard University and The Johns Hopkins University. He previously served on the faculties of the University of Maryland, Old Dominion University and the University of Wisconsin-Parkside.

His research focuses on issues of race and social equity in such areas as education, career aspirations and mobility, substance abuse prevention, and sports. He has published widely in these areas, including his most recent article titled "Race and Pathways to Power in the National Football League" (with Jomills H. Braddock and Erica Smith), which appears in American Behavioral Scientist (2012). His research on golf includes book chapters, scholarly articles, and the book African American Golfers During the Jim Crow Era (Praeger 2000), coauthored with Graham C. Kinloch. Dawkins was recently appointed to the United States Golf Association Museum Committee and is currently completing a study on the media treatment of black golfers from the Jim Crow era to the present.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

DAN RADAKOVICH

VP / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
INDIANA (PA), 1980

Dan Radakovich was named the 14th Director of Athletics in University of Miami history on December 8, 2021, returning to his graduate school alma mater as one of the nation's most decorated and successful college athletics administrators.

Radakovich, who most recently served as Director of Athletics at Clemson for nine years, launched his career at UM in 1983 as the Hurricanes' athletic business manager, an experience which charted a course that has now spanned seven schools and 30-plus years as a visionary leader in all aspects of college athletics.

In his first 18 months in Coral Gables, Radakovich has worked with campus leaders to chart an ambitious course for Miami Athletics with respect to facilities, sport sponsorship, fundraising and staff development. He hired three new head coaches (baseball, golf, rowing) and extended the contracts of six others. He has worked closely with football head coach Mario Cristobal to ramp up recruiting, evaluation, sports science and creative resources. Miami has announced plans to build a new football operations center, the on-campus "forever" home for Hurricanes football, a towering structure that will raise the student-athlete experience for all sports. UM recently opened the Susan and Stephen Symons Basketball Training Center and The Ruiz Family Baseball Strength & Conditioning Center.

This past year, Miami's men's basketball team reached its first-ever Final Four, while the women's basketball team advanced to the first Elite Eight in school history. UM also posted its highest Learfield Directors' Cup finish since 2016. Miami was one of seven schools – and the only ACC school – to have players drafted in the 2023 NFL, NBA, WNBA and MLB Drafts. In 2021-22, Miami was one of just two schools (along with North Carolina) to have its football team qualify for a bowl game, its men's basketball team reach the Sweet 16 and its baseball team host a regional.

Miami's most recent NCAA Graduation Success Rate was 93 percent, matching the school record set in 2012. UM student-athletes posted a Spring 2023 grade point average of 3.17, the school's highest non-COVID semester ever. Miami also captured the 2022 NCAA Team Works Community Service competition with 100 percent participation from its student-athletes.

Miami Athletic Development raised more than $26 million this past fiscal year, an increase of 36 percent over the previous year, and increased its total number of donors by more than 8,000.

Radakovich is the immediate past President of LEAD1, which represents athletic directors at the Division I level. He was named 2017 SportsBusiness Journal Athletic Director of the Year after being a finalist in 2015. In 2014, Radakovich was one of 13 people, including one of only five FBS Directors of Athletics, to be named to first College Football Playoff committee.

At Clemson, Radakovich oversaw the most successful stretch in Tigers football history as the program won two national championships (2016, 2018), six ACC titles and made six College Football Playoff appearances.

Clemson set a school record in the NCAA's most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) report, posting a 95 percent score, which also tied for first in the ACC amongst public schools. Eight Tigers programs earned perfect scores. Clemson student-athletes recorded nine semesters with a 3.0 GPA or higher, including a record 3.57 GPA in the spring of 2020. Radakovich guided the department successfully throughout the pandemic, helping Clemson to reopen athletic operations, including safely hosting 112,367 fans at Memorial Stadium in 2020, third most in the nation.

In 2020-21, Clemson had its best finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 2007, finishing No. 36. Highlighting the athletic year, the football program claimed the ACC title and appeared in the College Football Playoff, the men's soccer program claimed the 2020 ACC championship, and the women's soccer program advanced to the Elite Eight. Additionally, Radakovich oversaw the development of the softball program at Clemson, which officially began in the spring of 2020. That program earned the ACC regular-season championship in 2021 and made its first trip to the NCAA Tournament. Over the last 18 years, the name Katie Meier has become synonymous with Miami women's basketball.

As the head coach of the Miami women's basketball team, Meier has amassed 11 20-win seasons and coached the team to 13 postseason appearances, including 10 straight from 2009-2019. She is the all-time winningest basketball coach – men's or women's – at Miami with 343 career victories.

Through the 2022-23 campaign, Meier boasts a career record of 419-269 and holds a 343-224 mark during her time heading up the Miami program.

A Historic Run

In 2022-23, Meier and the Hurricanes made history, earning the program's first ever Elite Eight berth in the NCAA Tournament.

The run began in thrilling fashion as Miami mounted a 17-point halftime comeback against ninth-seeded Oklahoma State in the first round, the sixth-largest halftime comeback in NCAA Tournament history, to defeat the Cowgirls, 62-61.

The Hurricanes followed that with one of the biggest upsets of the tournament, defeating top-seeded Indiana on their home court, 70-68, to earn the first Sweet Sixteen berth of Meier's tenure.

In true Cinderella fashion, Miami then withstood a 20-point comeback by fourth-seeded Villanova in the Sweet Sixteen to earn a trip to the Elite Eight, defeating the Wildcats, 70-65.

Miami's historic run came to an end in the Elite Eight when they fell to eventual national champion, LSU, 54-42.

Honors and Accolades

Meier has been recognized for her coaching success numerous times throughout her career.

She was a co-recipient of the 2013 USA Basketball National Coach of the Year award following a 9-0 record and gold medal at the 2013 FIBA U19 World Championship and was inducted into the University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame in 2017.

At the conclusion of the 2010-11 season, Meier was named the Associated Press National Coach of the Year – sharing the award with Connecticut's Geno Auriemma and Stanford's Tara VanDerveer. That season, she led the Hurricanes to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2004, coached the Hurricanes to their first NCAA Tournament win since 1993 and was named ACC Coach of the Year.

In 2002, Meier was named to the ACC's 50th Anniversary Team and in 2006, she named an ACC Legend at the 2006 ACC Women's Basketball Tournament.

All About the Players

Meier has developed Miami into a program committed to its players and those student-athletes have flourished over the last 18 years.

Five All-Americans have emerged under Meier's tutelage: Tamara James (2006), Shenise Johnson (2011, 2012), Riguna Williams (2011, 2012), Adrienne Motley (2016) and Beatrice Mompremier (2019, 2020).

Six Hurricanes have been drafted into the WNBA following their time at Miami under Meier's tutelage, most recently being Destiny Harden who was selected 27th overall by the Phoenix Mercury in the 2023 WNBA Draft. James, Johnson, Mompremier, Motley and Williams were all also selected to the WNBA.

In total, Meier has coached 25 players that have gone on to play professionally, whether that is in the WNBA or overseas.

Under Meier's direction, 16 players have earned All-ACC Team postseason accolades, including Shenise Johnson who was named ACC Player of the Year in 2011. Five Hurricanes have been tabbed to the ACC All-Defensive Team and five rookies have made an appearance on the ACC All-Freshman Team. Emese Hof ('18), earned the first ACC Most Improved Player for Miami in program history.

Meier's players have also excelled in the classroom as 17 players have earned a spot on the ACC All-Academic team, with four players earning multi-year bids. Additionally, Miami has placed someone on the ACC Honor Roll in all 18 of Meier's seasons as head coach.

Milestone Moments

Miami made it's 10th NCAA Tournament appearance under Meier in 2022, besting South Florida in the first round. The win over the Bulls marked Meier's 400th career win as a head coach.

At the 2022 ACC Tournament, Miami made a historic run all the way to the ACC Championship Game – the first finals appearance in program history. The Hurricanes defeated a pair of top-25 teams in No. 4 Louisville and No. 20 Notre Dame en route to the finals.

On Nov. 9, 2021, Meier became the all-time winningest basketball coach – men's or women's – at Miami, passing Hurricane legend Ferné Labati (303).

Miami's trip to the 2019 NCAA Tournament marked the 10th consecutive postseason appearance for the program, including the eighth trip to the NCAA Tournament in nine years.

In 2015-16, Meier led Miami to a 24-9 record to tie for the fifth-most wins in a season in program history. The Hurricanes beat both Duke and North Carolina in the same year for the first time in program history, with the victory at North Carolina being the 200th of Meier's tenure at Miami.

During the 2011-12 season, Meier coached the Hurricanes to their highest ranking in program history at No. 5. Miami went undefeated at home for the second consecutive season, pushing the home win streak to 40 games.

The Hurricanes entered the 2010-11 season picked eighth in the Preseason ACC Poll and exceeded all outside expectations, posting a perfect 20-0 record inside the BankUnited Center. Miami finished conference play with a 12-2 record, earning their first regular season conference title since joining the league in 2004.

Shenise Johnson was named to four different All-America squads and became the second player in program history to be named the conference player of the year (Frances Savage – BIG EAST – 1992).

Hired April 19, 2005, Meier was appointed head coach of the Miami women's basketball team by then-Miami AD Paul Dee, signifying the beginning of a new era.

Prior to Miami

Meier got her start as a head coach at Charlotte, where she recorded an impressive four-year tenure. The 49ers made the postseason in three of her four years including the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since... Following a successful 2002-03 season, Meier was named Conference USA Coach of the Year.

Prior to Charlotte, Meier did stints at Tulane (1994-2001) and UNC Asheville (1993-94).

Establishing Her Legacy as a Player

Meier's success as a coach is a direct reflection of her playing career as a standout at Duke University. A four-year letter winner for the Blue Devils under head coach Debbie Leonard from 1986-90, Meier's name is scattered throughout the Duke record books.

She earned ACC Rookie of the Year and Basketball Yearbook Freshman All-America honors in 1986 and was named a Kodak WBCA District 2 All-American in 1990.

In 2002, Meier was honored by Duke for her efforts as a player when she was named to the inaugural induction class in the Blue Devils' Hall of Honor.

Fitzroy Anthony enters his ninth season with the Miami women's basketball program, joining the staff as an assistant coach on May 18, 2015. After seven successful seasons as an assistant coach and assistant head coach, Anthony was elevated to associate head coach on May 5, 2022.

Miami holds a 163-90 record during Anthony's tenure as a member of the Hurricanes' coaching staff. The Hurricanes have reached the NCAA Tournament in six of the eight years that Anthony has been on staff, including the program's first ever Elite Eight appearance in 2023. Anthony has helped Miami to 20-plus wins in six of his eight seasons.

The Antigua native has worked with nine All-ACC performers in forward/centers Erykah Davenport, Destiny Harden, Emese Hof and Beatrice Mompremier, and guards Haley Cavinder, Kelsey Marshall, Adrienne Motley, Jessica Thomas and Ja'Leah Williams.

Motley and Mompremier both earned WBCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades and became the fifth (2017) and sixth (2020) WNBA draft picks in program history, respectively. Most recently, Harden was drafted No. 27 overall by the Phoenix Mercury in the 2023 WNBA draft.

Anthony has also helped guide three guards, Endia Banks, Marshall and Williams, to ACC All-Freshman Team recognition.

In 2021-22, Anthony took over as recruiting coordinator and was instrumental in signing the No. 12 recruiting class in the nation, according to ESPNW HoopGurlz. He helped sign a pair of top-30 players in Kyla Oldacre (No. 25) and Lazaria Spearman (No. 30).

Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Anthony was an assistant coach at Florida Atlantic University for three seasons and helped the Owls make the move from the Sun Belt to Conference USA in his second year with the program.

During his three years at FAU, Anthony primarily worked with the team's guards, and did so with great success. In his final season there, the Owls had one backcourt player named First Team All-Conference USA and another selected to the league's all-freshman team.

Anthony played a key part in the Owls' scouting, defensive game planning and academic mentoring, while also handling all the team's scheduling.

A stellar recruiter, Anthony helped FAU sign the second-ranked recruiting class in the conference in 2014, according to Collegiate Girls Basketball Report.

In Anthony's second season in Boca Raton, Fla., he aided in guiding the Owls to their second winning season since 2005-06 and their second-most wins during that stretch.

Well-connected in South Florida, Anthony was the head coach at Coral Springs Charter School for two years, prior to making the move to FAU in August 2012. He led the Panthers to 20-wins seasons both years and was named the Broward County Athletic Association Coach of the Year in 2012.

Anthony directed the Panthers to their first regional and district championships in 2012, as well as their first berth in the Final Four of the state tournament. Four players he coached at Coral Springs Charter School went on to play Division I basketball.

Additionally, Anthony has experience coaching AAU basketball in South Florida and won over 80 percent of his games on the sidelines. Seven of his players proceeded to play collegiately in the ACC, SEC or Big 12.

Born in Antigua, Anthony moved to Boca Raton at age 12. He played basketball at Olympic Heights High School and then at Palm Beach Atlantic University, where he graduated in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in education.

One of the most prolific players in University of Miami women's basketball history returned home in April 2021 when head coach Katie Meier tabbed Shenise Johnson an assistant coach.

During her two years as an assistant coach, Johnson has helped the Hurricanes to unprecedented heights.

In 2022-23, Miami made program history by reaching its first ever Elite Eight during the 2023 NCAA Tournament. The Hurricanes' run was highlighted by a 17-point halftime comeback over ninth-seeded Oklahoma State, a thrilling upset of top-seeded Indiana on their home court and a defeat of fourth-seeded Villanova in the Sweet Sixteen.

In her first season, the Hurricanes made a dominant run in the 2022 ACC Tournament, culminating in the program's first ever trip to the ACC Championship game. The Hurricanes defeated a pair of top-25 teams in No. 4 Louisville and No. 20 Notre Dame en route to the finals.

Under her tutelage, four Hurricanes have earned All-ACC honors, including an All-Freshman Team nod for Ja'Leah Williams in 2022. Johnson mentored her first WNBA draft pick in Destiny Harden, who was selected 27th overall by the Phoenix Mercury in the 2023 WNBA draft.

Johnson donned a Miami jersey from 2008-2012 and finished her illustrious career near the top of the Hurricanes' leaderboard in numerous categories. She ranks first all-time in steals (401), second in rebounding (1,020), third in scoring (2,262) and fourth in assists (556). Johnson is the only Hurricane to reach 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds at Miami.

The guard helped the Miami program make monumental strides during her time as a Hurricane, taking the team from a 2-12 ACC record in 2008-09 to becoming co-regular season ACC Champions (12-2) in 2010-11.

A two-time Associated Press All-American and the 2011 ACC Player of the Year, Johnson not only took the Hurricanes to back-to-back NCAA Tournaments, but also helped the program achieve its highest ranking (fifth) in program history.

Following her time at Miami, Johnson became the highest-drafted player in program history when she was taken fifth overall in the 2012 WNBA Draft by the San Antonio Silver Stars.

She spent the next nine seasons playing professionally in the league, averaging 8.2 points, 3.6 rebounds and 1.8 assists in her eight-year WNBA career.

Johnson also played professional basketball overseas in places like Slovakia, Turkey and Israel.

The Miami sideline is a familiar place for Johnson as she most recently spent the 2020-21 season working as the coordinator of player development for the Hurricanes.

Josh Petersen joined the Miami women's basketball staff on June 24, 2022 as an assistant coach.

Petersen's first season with the Hurricanes was nothing short of historic as Miami made it to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history.

As the primary coach for the post players, Petersen coached the Hurricanes to become a top-five rebounding team in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Hurricanes went from ranking 11th and 13th in defensive rebounding and offensive rebounding percentages in 2021-22, respectively, to placing fifth in both categories in 2022-23.

Even before coming to Miami, Petersen was a familiar face in the ACC women's basketball sphere, spending four seasons as an assistant coach for the Pittsburgh Panthers. While at Pittsburgh, Petersen was responsible for the development of the post players, in addition to serving as the Panthers' recruiting coordinator.

During his Pittsburgh tenure, Petersen coached seven ACC All-Academic Team members, an ACC All-Freshman Team member and an All-ACC Team Honorable Mention designee.

Through his work with the Pittsburgh post players, Petersen completely revitalized the program's performance on the boards. Over four seasons, he coached the Panthers' rebounding effort from 14th in the ACC in offensive rebounds per game and offensive rebounding percentage to first in both categories.

The Panthers led the ACC in offensive rebounds per game each of his last two seasons at Pittsburgh, averaging just over 15 boards per contest. Even more impressive is that Pittsburgh ranked 26th in the nation in offensive rebounding percentage, hauling in 37.5 percent of its offensive rebound opportunities.

Petersen was instrumental in the recruiting and development of Rita Igbokwe and Amber Brown, who were part of a recruiting class that combined to score 31.0 points per game, the highest-scoring freshman class in program history.

Prior to his time at Pittsburgh, Petersen served as an assistant coach under Brenda Mock Kirkpatrick at UNC Asheville for four seasons. During his time in Asheville, N.C., the Bulldogs earned back-to-back Big South Conference Tournament crowns (2016, 2017), two NCAA Tournament berths (2016, 2017), three consecutive postseason berths (2016-2018) and one Big South Conference regular season title (2016).

With Petersen on the sidelines, nine Bulldogs earned All-Big South Conference honors, including 2015-16 league Player of the Year Chatori Major. Additionally, six players earned Big South Championship All-Tournament honors with Major and Sonora Dengokl being named Most Valuable Player in 2016 and 2017.

Petersen got his start in coaching as an undergraduate student at Florida State, where he worked as the Seminoles' head manager from 2008 to 2012, before moving into a graduate assistant position from 2012 to 2014. In his six years at Florida State, the Seminoles went to five NCAA Tournaments, including an appearance in the Elite Eight in 2010.

A native of Abernathy, Texas, Petersen moved to Tallahassee, Fla., prior to his senior year of high school and graduated from Godby High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting and finance in 2012 and his master's degree in sports management at FSU in the spring of 2014.

In 2021-22, Dunn helped the Vikings post their second 20-win campaign over the last three years, and was part of the Viking coaching staff that led CSU to the Horizon League Championship game and back-to-back postseason appearances (2022 WBI).

Prior to his time at Cleveland State, Dunn recorded a six-year stint at George Mason, where he served as the assistant coach and international recruiter. During his time with the Patriots, Dunn helped mentor back-to-back A-10 Players of the Year, while also helping George Mason post the most wins in program history during the 2017-18 season.

A program-best five Hurricanes were named to the All-ACC Academic Team this season and seven student-athletes earned degrees.

FEELIN' ELITE

The Hurricanes are coming off the most historic NCAA Tournament run in program history as they advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time ever. The eighth-seeded Hurricanes rallied from down 17 points at halftime to defeat ninth-seeded Oklahoma State in the first round and followed that up with a thrilling win over top-seeded Indiana to advance to the Sweet Sixteen for the first time in the Katie Meier era. Miami bested No. 4 Villanova to earn a spot in the Elite Eight, where they fell to eventual national champion LSU.

BREAKOUT PERFORMANCE

Jasmyne Roberts was the star of the Hurricanes' NCAA Tournament run, averaging 19.0 points and 7.3 rebounds in four tournament games to earn a spot on the Greenville 2 All-Region team. She eclipsed the 20-point mark in back-to-back games, including setting a new career high in scoring with 26 points against Villanova. Williams continued to perform in her second season with the Hurricanes, leading the team in assists per game (2.7) and ranking third in total steals (43).

TERRIFIC TRANSFERS

The Hurricanes added three additions via the transfer portal ahead of the 2022-23 season. Seniors Haley and Hanna Cavinder and sophomore Latasha Lattimore all suited up for Miami at some point during the season.

Haley Cavinder ultimately led the Hurricanes in scoring, averaging 12.2 points per game to go along with 4.9 rebounds and 2.5 assists. Hanna Cavinder provided a 3-point spark off the bench for Miami, while Latasha Lattimore 7.7 points per contest before suffering a season-ending ACL injury in December.

PAST COACHES

BARRY SCHIMER

Barry Schimer served as the first head coach of the Miami women's basketball team, starting in 1972. Schimer coached the Hurricanes for three seasons (1972-1975), posting a 16-15 record, with back-to-back winning seasons his last two years.

In his final season, Schimer led the Canes to a second-place finish in the FAIAW with a record of 8-6. Miami was a perfect 3-0 at home that season.

SHULA FEUER

Shula Feuer took over the head coaching job at Miami prior to the 1975-76 season. In two years with the Canes, Feuer posted a 16-24 mark with a third-place finish in the FAIAW in 1976-77.

In 2018, Feuer was honored with the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Trailblazer Award for her commitment to women's basketball. Feuer was recognized as one of the founding members of the Women's Basketball League, the predecessor to the current WNBA.

ISABELLA HUTCHINSON

Isabella Hutchison could easily be called the founder of the University of Miami women's athletics program. She came to the University of Miami in 1965 with the mandate of beginning a women's intramural sports program. From that beginning, Hutchison went on to coach numerous sports, including the Miami women's basketball team in 1977-78.

Outside of Miami, Hutchison is well known in the cause of furthering women's athletics. She was not only President of the Florida Association of Women's Intercollegiate Athletics from 1977-79, but also Chairperson of many AIAW and NCAA committees such as awards and officiating.

Following her time at Miami, Hutchison went on to serve as Associate Athletic Director for Women's Sports at Indiana University until her retirement from collegiate athletics in 2000.

LIN DUNN

Lin Dunn served as head coach of the Women's Basketball program from 1978-87, accumulating a 149-119 record with the Hurricanes.

During her nine seasons in Coral Gables, Dunn guided the Hurricanes to their first-ever ranking in the Associated Press Top 20 in 1985 and to their first Florida State Championship in 1981. She was the 1981 Florida Coach of the Year and served with the 1986 United States Women's Basketball Team in 1986.

Her first year saw UM finish 10-13 and place fifth in the state. The team rebounded largely in her second season, posting an 18-16 record. Dunn's impact became apparent in her third season with Miami (1980-81), as the Hurricanes forged a 24-15 record.

From there, the record-setting team made its first postseason appearance in the AIAW Region III Championship. Her 1981-82 squad followed up on its previous seasons' success with a 19-10 record, and another berth into the AIAW postseason tournament. Dunn's seventh season resulted in her top win percentage (.750) 21-7.

Dunn served as President of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in 1984-85. She was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2014.

KEN PATRICK

1987-88

Ken Patrick was named the interim head coach for the 1987-88 season. Patrick served as an assistant coach during the prior year under Lin Dunn.

Under Patrick's direction, the Canes went 14-13.

FERNE LABATI

Ferne Labati became the head coach of Woman's basketball at the University of Miami in 1988. She has the most wins of any UM women's basketball coach and took her 2003-2004 team to the NCAA Tournament.

Highlighting her 15 seasons are nine berths in postseason play, six in the NCAA tournament and three in the WNIT.

The Canes won back-to-back BIG EAST regular season and Tournament titles in 1992 and 1993, while finishing as high as No. 6 nationally. Her 1996 squad earned a share of the BIG EAST 7 division title. Labati herself was named WBCA/Converse Coach of the Year in 1992.

Labati's record at Miami stands at 290-179 (.618) while her overall record in 26 seasons as a head coach is 426-301 (.586). Though her success on the court is impressive, what she has accomplished off the court might serve as her legacy at the University of Miami: In her 16 seasons, 40 of the 41 student-athletes that completed their eligibility at Miami have graduated.

From day one at the University of Miami, Tamara James made her mark as one of the top basketball players in program history. One of the country's most prolific players in her four collegiate seasons, James averaged 20.4 points per game and finished her career as Miami's all-time leading scorer with 2,406 points.

A standout guard at South Broward High School, James was ranked No. 14 in the nation by All-Star Girls Report in her senior season, during which she averaged 21.0 points and 11.0 rebounds per game. She was named the Florida State Player of the Year in 2002.

James was a McDonald's All-American, Fourth Team Parade All-American and Nike All-American in high school before choosing to attend the University of Miami, where she helped turn the program into one of the nation's best. She recorded one of the best freshman seasons in UM history, becoming the first freshman to lead the BIG EAST in scoring, with an average of 21.0 points per game. This total ranked her No. 12 nationally and was fourth-best in Miami history at the time. She scored double figures in 30 of 31 games played in the 2002-03 season.

Selected to the All-BIG EAST Preseason First Team, James' sophomore season continued in much the same fashion. She became the 17th Hurricane to reach 1,000 points, finishing the season ranked No. 14 in program history with 1,114. She scored a career-high 37 points in a win against Eastern Kentucky, and 22 points in 25 minutes in a win against Seton Hall. She earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors and was named BIG EAST Player of the Week twice on the season.

With Miami's move to the ACC in time for the 2004-2005 season, James became the second player in NCAA history to lead two major conferences in scoring. She led the Hurricanes in nearly every statistical category during her junior season, including field goals made (242), 3-point percentage (.328), rebounding (6.9 rpg) and minutes played (36.1 mpg), helping the Hurricanes to an NCAA Tournament berth.

In her senior season, James led the ACC in scoring with an average of 21.5 points per game and helped earn Miami a place in the 2006 WNIT. She passed UM Hall of Famer Maria Rivera's all-time scoring record when she netted 32 points against FIU. During James' career, the Hurricanes posted a 70-47 record.

James not only left UM with the most points in program history, but also as the leader in free throws made and free throws attempted, in addition to ranking in the top three all-time in nine different categories. She was the first-round draft pick of the WNBA's Washington Mystics in 2006 and has since played overseas for teams in Israel, Turkey and Spain. She was chosen as a member of the ACC Women's Basketball Legends Class of 2012.

1996 Second Team All-BIG EAST

1998 WBNS Third Team All-American

University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame
ACC Women's Basketball Legend
Miami's single-season 3-point percentage leader
Eighth in scoring at Miami

The first player in University of Miami program history to be drafted by a WNBA team, Octavia Blue had an illustrious career as a Hurricane. She ended her tenure at UM ranking in the top six of numerous career statistical categories, including fourth in scoring with 1,724 points, a number that still ranks eighth all-time.

A native of Deerfield Beach, Fla., Blue matriculated to Miami after a stellar prep career at nearby Nova High School, where she was a two-time team captain. She averaged double figures all four seasons, including posting 28.2 points and 15.0 rebounds per game during a dominant senior season. That year, she received first team all-state and player of the year recognition from both the Miami Herald and the Sun Sentinel. Both papers named Blue, who notched 46 points in one high school game, second team all-state after a junior season in which she logged 26.4 points and 13.0 rebounds per game.

Blue made an impact right away at Miami, leading the Hurricanes in scoring (14.5 ppg), rebounding (7.2 rpg), minutes (29.8 mpg) and blocks (20) during her freshman campaign in 1994-95. In the first game of her career, Blue notched 24 points and nine rebounds against Fairfield. She followed that with a 28-point outing versus Florida Atlantic in her second-career contest. Following the season, Blue was selected to the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team.

In 1995-96, as a sophomore, Blue garnered the first of three straight All-BIG EAST honors. Starting all 27 contests, Blue scored in double figures 24 times and led Miami in scoring (16.0 ppg) for the second straight year. She also tallied a team-best five double-doubles and paced UM in field goal percentage (.488). Blue earned the first of four career BIG EAST Player of the Week honors during a season in which Miami tied for first in the BIG EAST 7 Division.

Blue was named a Third Team All-BIG EAST selection for the second season in a row as a junior in 1996-97. The skilled forward posted 13.4 points and 5.6 rebounds per contest and totaled a career-best 37 steals during the campaign.

Saving her best for last, Blue was dominant during her senior season in 1997-98. She became the second player in program history to garner first, second or third team All-America honors, earning WBNS Third Team All-America status. A Second Team All-BIG EAST pick and a Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American, Blue led Miami in scoring for the third time (19.2 ppg) and helped the Hurricanes to their fourth NCAA Tournament appearance. Her 40 points and 16 made field goals against Florida Atlantic were then the third-highest single-game marks by a UM player and it still stands tied for fourth. After attempting just three 3-pointers in her first three seasons, Blue posted the best single-season mark in program history (.453) in her last year.

Blue started 107 of 112 games during her career and three of contests she did not start were games she missed with an ankle injury as a freshman. Entering 2017-18, she has still has six career records in the top 10 on Miami's all-time list. In 2008, Blue was both inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame and tabbed as an ACC Women's Basketball Legend.

RETIRED JERSEYS

#11 MARIA RIVERA (1984-88)

1984 WBBY Freshman All-American

1988 Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American

University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame

Miami's all-time leader in field goals made

Second in scoring and steals, sixth in assists at Miami

Only Hurricane to score 40-plus points in a game multiple times

As one of the most electric scorers ever to step on the court and play at the University of Miami, Maria Rivera left her mark as a four-year standout with the Hurricanes. During her playing career from 1984-88, Rivera reached a level never before achieved at Miami and departed as the Hurricanes' record holder in several categories, including career points with 2,358.

Rivera came to Miami by way of Canovana, Puerto Rico, where, at just the age of 14, she was named the 1978 Player of the Year by the Puerto Rican Olympic Committee before going on to star on the Puerto Rican 1979 and 1983 Pan American Teams.

From day one she showed an unprecedented desire to achieve at UM. Speaking only Spanish, Rivera borrowed $2,000 dollars from a bank to enroll in an intense fast-paced English program to pass an English equivalency exam required to enroll at Miami, and just three months later she was on campus and playing for the Hurricanes.

Rivera averaged 18.7 points and 5.3 assists, leading the Hurricanes in scoring in 13-of-28 games in 1984-85, her first season at Miami. That season she showed what lay ahead on several occasions, including a school-record-setting performance against Lamar during which she hit 10-of-11 shots from the field and a 33-point outing against Florida. Following the conclusion of the regular season, she was named to the Women's Basketball Yearbook Freshman All-America Team.

The following season she stepped up her game, averaging 21.4 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.3 assists. Her 21.4 points per game was the second-highest single-season average in UM history and her 579 points was the third-highest ever at Miami.

Rivera's junior season was highlighted by yet another impressive scoring output, averaging 20.9 points, which ranked third all-time at UM just behind her previous season's mark. That year was full of memorable achievements, including a then-career-high 38-point game in UM's opener against Monmouth, but none were more exciting than when she surpassed former Hurricane Sylvia Wilson to become Miami's all-time leading scorer.

In her senior campaign at Miami, Rivera turned in another memorable season. Needing 29 points to break former men's basketball legend Rick Barry's UM basketball record of 2,298 points, Rivera scored 30 points in the first half of a Feb. 25 contest with UCF en route to a then-school-record 41 points to become Miami's all-time leading scorer in both men's and women's basketball.

Upon finishing her career with the Hurricanes, Rivera left as the school record-holder in 16 separate categories—including points (2,358), scoring average (21.1 ppg), steals (382) and field goals made (891) and attempted (1,931) to firmly ensure her place as one of the greatest basketball players to ever play at Miami.

Third in rebounding, fourth in scoring at Miami*

Frances Savage is one of the best players to ever don a uniform at the University of Miami. During her four-year career from 1988-91 Savage etched her name throughout the UM record books. She left as the school's second all-time leading scorer with 2,184 points and still ranks first all-time with a career 23.2 scoring average—despite missing all but two games of the 1990-91 season.

The 12th child of a household of 13 children, the Fort Lauderdale, Fla., native averaged greater than 30 points per game during her senior season at Sunrise Piper High School and was named the Miami Herald's Broward Player of the Year in 1985 and 1987.

After drawing All-America honors as a high school standout, Savage chose to attend the University of Miami, but was forced to sit out her freshman season in 1987 while fulfilling academic requirements. Once her opportunity arose in 1988, Savage burst onto the scene, scoring 32 points in her collegiate debut versus Southwest Missouri State—the most points scored by a Miami player in her opening game. She would go on to start and score double figures in all 29 games of the 1988 season, averaging 22.4 points and 9.2 rebounds per game.

As a preseason All-America candidate, Savage's junior season picked up where the 1988 season left off, scoring double figures in all 31 games that season while leading the team in scoring (23.6 ppg), rebounding (9.5 rpg), steals (71), free throw percentage (.786) and field goal percentage (.540). In 1990, Savage opened her senior season with back-to-back 30-point outings, but was lost for the year with a torn ACL suffered in just the second game of the season.

Granted a fifth year of eligibility, in 1991, Savage returned to score 31 points in her first start against in-state rival Florida. She tied the then-school record with 41 points in Miami's win over Providence during the course of the Hurricanes' 30-game win streak.

Averaging 23.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game, Savage helped lead the Hurricanes to the BIG EAST Championship title in only their first season in the conference and was named both the BIG EAST and Sports Illustrated Player of the Year, in addition to garnering Kodak/WBCA All-America honors.

At the end of her illustrious career, Savage ranked No. 10 in Division I history in scoring average (minimum 1,500 points) and her 23.2 mark stands at No. 20 all-time entering 2016-17.

Savage left Miami as one of the most decorated athletes in school history, holding nine Hurricane records, as well as finishing as the school's second all-time leading scorer. She has since been inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame and to UM's Iron Arrow Society—the highest honor bestowed on an individual by the university. Savage was Miami's inaugural ACC Women's Basketball Legend, earning the distinction in 2005.

NCAA Negotiated Resolution #020161

On February 24, 2023 the NCAA Committee on Infractions and the University of Miami announced a Negotiated Resolution regarding case No. 02161.

The institution, head women's basketball coach and enforcement staff agreed that between April 7 through 13, 2022, the head coach and an assistant women's basketball coach facilitated an impermissible off-campus contact between a booster and two prospects and their parents that resulted in the booster providing the prospects with an impermissible inducement (e.g., a meal). Additionally, the head coach violated NCAA publicity legislation when she commented about the prospects to the booster and provided him information about their official visit. The head coach did not rebut the presumption of responsibility pursuant to bylaw 11.1.1.1.

The head coach served a three-game suspension and the University has been placed on one year of probation from February 24, 2023 through February 23, 2024. The women's basketball program also reduced recruiting visit opportunities and communications during the 2022-23 academic year.
